

Create your free account and open the demo

Two minutes, no password and no credit card. You get every Owedex screen at once, on a made-up dental office, plus the free check on your own report.

No password

You sign in with a passkey: your fingerprint, face or computer PIN.

No patient data needed

The demo office and its patients are made up. The free check runs in your browser and uploads nothing.

Step by step

1

Below the text is a 'Continue with Google' button, followed by the text 'or with your work email'. There are four input fields: 'Full name' (filled with 'Maria Manager'), 'Work email (your office's address or Gmail)' (filled with 'maria.manager@example.com'), 'Practice name' (filled with 'Pecan Grove Family Dental (made up)'), and 'Your role' (a dropdown menu with 'Office manager' selected).

You can also click Continue with Google instead of typing your email.

Type the code from your email

Owedex emails you a 6-digit code. It works once and expires in 10 minutes. Type it (or paste the whole email line) and click Continue .

Set up your passkey

Choose This device (Windows Hello, Touch ID or your phone's screen lock), then confirm with your fingerprint, face or PIN.

From now on you sign in with this passkey. Email codes stop working for your account. You can add more passkeys (a phone, a spare key) in Settings → Security.

You're in: the demo office

Owedex opens the made-up demo office on Today. The yellow bar says your own office is waiting for approval: Owedex reviews every new office by hand, usually within one business day, and emails you. Until then you have the demo and the free check on your own report.
